GET THE LED OUT 'THE AMERICAN LED ZEPPELIN' RETURNS TO THE BARBARA B. MANN PERFORMING ARTS HALL AT FSW MARCH 20

TICKETS ON SALE FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 17 AT 10AM

(Fort Myers) – Get The Led Out (GTLO) returns to the Barbara B. Mann Performing Arts Hall at FSW on Tuesday, March 20 at 7:00PM. Tickets go on sale Friday, November 17 at 10AM at the Box Office, online at www.bbmannpah.com or call (239) 481-4849.

From the bombastic and epic, to the folky and mystical, Get The Led Out (GTLO) has captured the essence of the recorded music of Led Zeppelin and brought it to the concert stage. The Philadelphia-based group consists of six veteran musicians, intent on delivering Led Zeppelin live, like you've never heard before! Utilizing the multi-instrumentalists at their disposal, GTLO re-creates songs, in all their depth and glory, with the studio overdubs that Zeppelin themselves never performed. When you hear three guitars on the album...GTLO delivers three guitarists on stage. No wigs or fake English accents, GTLO brings what the audience wants...a high energy Zeppelin concert with honest, heart-thumping intensity.

Dubbed by the media as "The American Led Zeppelin," Get The Led Out offers a strong focus on Led Zeppelin's early years. They touch on the deeper cuts that were seldom, if ever heard in concert. GTLO also includes a special "acoustic set", with Zep favorites "Tangerine", and the "Battle of Evermore" being performed in its' original instrumentation with guest singer Diana DeSantis joining the band.

Get The Led Out's approach to performance of this hallowed catalog is not unlike a classical performance. "Led Zeppelin are sort of the classical composers of the rock era," says lead vocalist Paul Sinclair. "I believe 100 years from now they will be looked at as the Bach or Beethoven of our time. As cliché as it sounds, their music is timeless."

A Get The Led Out concert mimics the "light and shade" that are the embodiment of "The Mighty Zep." Whether it's the passion and fury with which they deliver the blues-soaked, groove-driven rock anthems, it's their attention to detail and nuance that makes a Get The Led Out performance a truly awe-inspiring event!
