Rodney Carrington has been making audiences laugh for almost twenty years with his unique brand of stand-up comedy. The country singer-songwriter has recorded eight major label comedy albums which have sold more than two million copies ... two of which have been certified Gold. His most recent special 'Laughter's Good' is now available on Netflix.

Rodney Carrington started his own record label "Laughter's Good" and released two albums under the new label in October 2014. Rodney re-released "C'Mon Laugh You Bastards" which features 3 new songs, as well as an album of all new material called "Laughter's Good."

In addition to starting his own record label, Rodney started a new YouTube series in October 2014 called "Bit By Bit." In the series, he releases new material one piece at a time on a weekly basis.

According to Pollstar, Rodney has been one of the top ten highest grossing touring comedians for the last 10 years, and among the top 4 or 5 the last several years. His popularity derives in large part, from his connection to his audience both at his live shows, as well as social media. By the looks of his schedule in 2017, he shows no signs of slowing down!
